President's Message

As I sit here tonight I can now assure you that the quilt show is definitely over. It was a lot of fun and I was so proud of the beautiful quilts we all had to show. I am now contemplating my next request for you. It seems that all I have to do is ask and people step up to fill in all sorts of positions. I needed a new quilt show chairperson and Coralyn Colladay and Margreta Silverstone stepped up to the plate. Their arms are not too sore and will heal nicely from the twisting. Believe it or not the chairs already have had work to do while we can relax for a while. They will be needing help and while you are resting, think about offering your services as a chair of one of the committees for the next show. We would like to have at least two people for each job so that one person can be in training and the show will have continuity. I also will need a new block of the month creator because Cathie Shelton cannot continue for next year, or perhaps we can have a mystery quilt in the newsletter. Any takers?

In August we will again be coordinating Quilt Day at the Fair, so think about taking a day off on Wednesday, August 18 and coming out to the air-conditioned building and tying charity quilts. We had fun and did well last year. Also, our annual Fort Washington bus trip is already scheduled as are some great speakers for next year.

At our end-of-year party we will have a chance to exchange some of our not needed items for someone else's, but remember that you set your own prices and guard your own things. If your items do not sell and you don't want them, I will see that they are donated to charity. We can also purchase a 2003 t-shirt at a reduced price and acquire pictures from our old albums. We have an archive of old pictures which no one ever looks at and no one wants to store. I am going to take out representative pictures of the historic type (like old presidents and raffle quilts and events) but the rest will be up for grabs. Can you imagine what I looked like in 1984 when I joined FSQ? If I recognize myself, I will take the pictures before you can see them! Don't forget the food for the party and that secret sisters will be revealed. I can't wait.

- Sandy D'Angelo

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE RAFFLE WINNERS!

The raffle quilt was won by Becky West, who bought the winning ticket from Coralyn Colladay at a Cabin Branch Quilt Guild meeting. Her husband's name was drawn from the basket, because Becky used her husband's return address label on the stub. But she insisted "Hey, that was my money! I won!" She was ecstatic.

The Singer Featherweight was won by Stef Boss of Silver Spring, MD. She is a quilter, but not a member of FSQ--yet. She bought six tickets for the featherweight around 1:00 PM on Sunday, and is delighted to have won it!

2004 FSQ Challenge Quilts Entered in

I want to formally thank Barbara Kahla, Melinda Lowy, Judy Lundberg and Nancy Walsh for helping me select eight challenge quilts for submission to the American Quilters Society 2004 Quilt Exposition Ultimate Guild Challenge Contest being held in Nashville, TN, August 18-21, 2004. The quilts have arrived in Paducah; however, we won't know until mid-July if they are juried into the show. As soon as I hear something I'll call the eight quilters, so they can make their travel plans! I'll also announce it at the August meeting!

The eight quilts submitted are:

"Wishing You Calm Seas and Prosperous Voyages",
Ruth Cohen

"Lonestar with Trapunto", Sandy D'Angelo

"Pickles in the Garden", Marty Fry

MINUTES OF FSQ Meeting – May 3, 2004

President's Announcements - Sandy D'Angelo called the meeting to order at 7:30 PM. New members and visitors were recognized. Minutes from the last meeting were approved as published. Deadline for the next newsletter is May 20th. The next Executive Board Meeting will be held on May 10th at Sandy's house. Juanita Canfield is donating her longarm quilting services for our raffle quilt. Sandy reminded everyone to take a look at the Clustered Spires Raffle quilt that is outside in the lobby.

Announcements

Marion Fox brought Eagle Scout, Ben Friedman, Bethesda, to ask us to help with his scout project to collect blankets for premature babies. He needs blankets that are 14" by 14" to cover the bassinets. The blankets provide color and warmth for families. He hopes to gather 200 blankets over the next two months.

Sandy Staples told us about the May 15th Spring Festival at the Agricultural Farm. Activities are free but there is a $10 car fee. Quilters are needed to demonstrate for this event and for the first Saturday in October for the Fall Festival.

Cathie Shelton asked for support for Operation Homefront Quilt to provide a quilt for each family who has lost someone in Iraq. Fabric and/or blocks are needed. She will be the contact and will collect what we bring next month. Flyers are available.

Carolyn Vaccaro is collecting squares for Jubilee Association at the next meeting. They are making a quilt for Tim Reeves, the association director, serving 90 clients for the last 25 years.

Janet Maple reminded us to complete Secret Sister Questionnaires for next year.

Janora Parker passed around the food signup sheet for the end of year party.

Judy Miller passed away on April 16th. Her memorial service was on Monday, May 10th at the Unitarian Universalist Church on New Hampshire Avenue.

Kim Jalette had a door prize basket with special patterns from Frieda Anderson. She also wanted to announce that once again we are going to collect quilts to donate to the Susan B. Koman Foundation for their donation raffle during their Race for the Cure in October. The quilts will be raffled at the survivor's tent. All race participants can participate in the raffle this year. They are looking for lap size quilts. The turn in date will be around the 3rd week in September.

Marie Quattrociocchi and Peggy Kipling thanked quilt show volunteers (over 80 people) who helped make the show a tremendous success.

Nancy Colladay thanked those who participated in the challenge. She stated that there were 21 quilts that were considered for the national guild challenge based on the quilt owner wanting to participate. Four judges selected the top eight quilts which were sent to Paducah.

Burt White thanked everyone for their participation (bidding and buying) in the silent auction. Checks are available at break.

Jane Campos thanked everyone for their participation in the Boutique. The boutique was a great success.

Linda August, quilt show hospitality, thanked everyone for donating goodies for the show. As membership chair, Linda is collecting dues for next year.

Liz Brodsky and Diane Heller thanked everyone for their help in making the 2004 FSQ Quilt show a terrific success.

Program Notes

Coralyn Colladay introduced our speaker, Frieda Anderson, who talked on "Walking in the Park with George" (her dog). Class members showed their work products which were in some cases completed quilted jackets.

Prize Winners

The Block of the Month winner was Susan Morris.

The Door prizes were Joan Cohen, Burt White, Polly Baxter, Carol Sawtell, and Cheryl Wangner.

Respectfully submitted,
Liz Brodsky, Secretary

Operation Homefront Quilt

At the May meeting, Cathie Shelton told us about 19-year old Jessica Porter and her mom making quilts for every American family that has lost a loved one while serving in Iraq. The American Professional Quilting System (APOS) donated a Millennium long-arm quilting machine to facilitate her efforts. They are requesting supplies on her behalf for "Operation Homefront Quilt". She needs solid red, white, burgundy and blue fabric, patriotic prints or completed tops with a patriotic theme.

Cathie Shelton will collect any contributions guild members wish to donate and coordinate shipping. Encouraging notes may be sent to Ms. Jessica Porter, 12637 Sugar Creek Blvd., Hudson, FL 34669-2818.

LOST ITEM

On May 3rd, when I was packing up my stuff to leave the workshop, I inadvertently left my large ruler. It is clear plastic, 5" wide and about 23" long with a lip at one end. I did not have my name on it. Perhaps someone took it home by mistake and doesn't know to whom to return it. I would be happy to come to anyone's house to pick it up. My phone number is in the directory.

In memory of Judy Miller, who died on April 16, 2004, FSQ donated $100 to the Cannon Road Elementary School for the Reading Program. It also has been proposed that a portion of the 2005 raffle quilt proceeds be donated to the Cannon Road Elementary School in Judy's memory.

QUILT SHOW 2005

QUILT SHOW 2005 NEEDS YOU!
But only a few of you before October.

The Tradition of Quilting: It's A Small World, Friendship Star's 2005 quilt show, will be held at the Montgomery Country Fairgrounds, April 22-24, 2005.

Many chair women from 2004's quilt show committee have agreed to continue in "office," but put out a plea for helpers. The list will run in the August newsletter, so take a look and decide where you would like to help/learn how to be chair women for 2006.

Publicity: One or two people to ensure that flyers are placed at quilt shows, shops, libraries, etc. Flyers will be available by the end of July. You will be responsible for "adopt-a-shop," making sure a guild member is taking flyers to the local shops. Some of you have already stepped forward for those jobs that start right away. Nancy Colladay has agreed to take care of early publicity – getting the show in the magazine calendars and into the news that's printed early, like the Country Registers. Beth Smith has agreed to take care of contacting the media closer to show time. Thanks Nancy and Beth!

Challenge: One or two people to design the challenge, describe it at guild meetings, and manage hanging it at the show. The design should be ready to be published in the August newsletter. Email your ideas to Coralyn or Margreta as soon as possible so we can clear them with the Board.

Workshops: One or two people to plan workshops, select instructors, execute contracts, solicit and manage registrations, and manage workshops during the show. You will select the instructors and place them under contract as soon as possible. You will solicit and manage registrations as soon as workshops are advertised. This can include having class samples taken to other guilds. You will set up and manage the workshops at the quilt show. Kim Jalette has done an excellent job of this the last two shows and has offered to provide technical assistance to the new workshop chairs.

Quilt Marketing: One or two people to encourage members to take the raffle quilt to events/clubs to sell tickets, and keep track of the quilt's whereabouts. This job will start as soon as the quilt returns from the quilter and is bound, around September. You get to carry around a nifty notebook or clipboard.

Co-Chairs for 2006: Two people to get ready to Chair the committee in 2006. Shadow Coralyn and Margreta, or sit on the committee in some capacity, to see just how easy it is to work with competent folks on a project that has enough history so that there are few problems that haven't been dealt with before. The show does not hang itself, and is very dependent upon generous volunteers, but it's fun to do when you get started early. Check with any of us who have done this before – it really is a pleasure.

Coralyn Colladay

Margreta Silverstone

QUILTS FOR RACE FOR THE CURE

Last year, ten members of FSO participated in making and donating quilts to be raffled off to breast cancer survivors at the Komen Maryland Race for the Cure. Our guild was the single largest contributing group, with $720 in auction bids for just our quilts. This year, they have opened up the auction of quilts to all Race participants, as it was so well received last year. Please join me in donating a quilt (lap-size is preferred) to help this very worthy cause. The Race will be October 9, 2004, so I would like to have your quilts by mid-September.

For questions or additional information, please call Kim Jalette or e-mail her.

– Kim Jalette

JUNE 7 END-OF-YEAR PARTY SIGN-UP LIST

We do not need soda, cutlery or plastic glasses, as we have things left over from the quilt show. If you missed the last meeting and did not get to sign up, bring your favorite treat to share and come and enjoy the festivities. Thank you.
